

Calendar Year 2019

As part of its overall efforts to promote transparency for shareholders and others, Cognizant voluntarily discloses its corporate contributions that may be used for political purposes. This report is updated semi-annually. The below summarizes Cognizant's payments for the calendar year 2019. More information relating to Cognizant's policy and procedures for political expenditures can be found in Cognizant's Political Activity Policy available on our website.

Category	Cognizant Corporate Contributions
Corporate Contributions to state or local political candidates, parties and committees (where permitted by law)	None
Payments to organizations organized under Section 527 of the Internal Revenue Code ("IRC")	Democratic Governors Association	$	25,000
	National Governors Association Dues		30,000
	Good Jobs for All Americans project		50,000
	Republican Governors Association		25,000
Independent political expenditures made in direct support of or opposition to a campaign	None
Payments made to influence the outcome of ballot measures	None
Payments to other tax-exempt organizations, such as "social welfare organizations" organized until Section 501(c)(4) of the IRC that may be used for political purposes	None
Memberships in U.S. trade associations where dues paid exceed $50,000 and such dues may be used for political purposes		Membership Dues	Lobbying <sup>1</sup>
	The Business Roundtable	$ 300,000	40%
	Information Technology Industry Council	215,050	17.5%
	US Chamber of Commerce	250,000	25%
	US India Strategic Partnership Forum	120,000	30%

<sup>1</sup> Portion of the company's payments were used for non-deductible lobbying expenditures under Section 162(e) of the Internal Revenue Code as reported by the relevant trade association.