

“Cognizant has established a well-balanced global capital markets portfolio, serving clients across buy-side, sell-side, and market infrastructure segments with domain-specific capabilities. Its stronghold in asset and wealth management, coupled with increasing traction in private equity and hedge fund operations, is complemented by gen AI-led offerings such as Neuro AI and KYC Co-Pilot. Cognizant’s consistent delivery strength, ability to scale operations, and expanding GCC-focused offerings have helped it emerge as a Leader in Everest Group’s Capital Markets Operations PEAK Matrix® Assessment 2025.”
